

The Benefits of a Trained Dog

AMERICAN
KENNEL CLUBSM

He sits when told to do so.

He leaves guests alone when they are eating.

He will not jump up on guests.

He will not take over the house.

He knows you're the boss.

He comes when called and does not stray.

He does not strain on the leash and walk you.

He is not a nuisance to your neighbors.

He chews on items that are his toys.

He does not bark endlessly.

He will not chase other dogs or cats.

He loves you for telling him what you want because he really wants you to be happy.
